IOTA ADVISORS' UPDATE

This fall has been another great one at IOTA. We remain brotherhood of over 100 men. The brothers not only had a successful recruitment of 27 new brothers, but completed nearly 1,000 hours of community service, raised nearly $10,000 for Children's Miracle Network, placed over a dozen men on the Dean's List last spring, have started their march to their fifth consecutive intramural championship, enhanced their standards programs, and much more. We are very proud of our undergraduates and their successes in and outside of the classroom.

We congratulate and thank Ben Brentin and his fellow officers and chairmen on their accomplishments during their tenure. We look forward to working with the new leadership team that will be elected this winter.

As we approach IOTA's 100th anniversary of our founding in 1920 we are excited about our future as A Powerhouse of Excellence at DU. We are exploring the possibility of expanding the common space at the chapter house and improving its safety features and accessibility. Stay tuned for more details on this plan.

My thanks to all of my fellow advisors for their efforts in mentoring and supporting our undergraduates and thanks to Jay Reano for his efforts on alumni events in Denver and Gregg Witt for those in Chicago. As always we thank Don Reisfeld for being our editor on our An Iota's Worth eNewsletter.

We are also thrilled that so many IOTAs are now involved as board members with the national fraternity and foundation as well as serving as local chapter advisors for groups around the country.

These brothers are living the ritual by doing brotherhood, always. We congratulate AJ Stowell, a sophomore, for his selection as an undergraduate Supreme Councilor with ZBT. We hope more will consider getting involved. We wish all our brothers and their families' happy holidays and a happy and healthy new year.

Rest assured it is GREAT TO BE A ZBT AT DU!

Iota's Second Century We Need Your Support

Iota's storied history continues as we approach the celebration of our centennial.

Founded in 1920 at DU, Iota chapter has initiated well over 1,000 brothers. The chapter is currently enjoying great success. It has been honored as the #1 ranked fraternity at DU over the past several years and has been runner-up for national ZBT best chapter award aka The Brummer Cup, for six of the past seven years.

The chapter has had over 100 brothers for the past several years.

The chapter house was built in 1959 and expanded slightly in the mid-sixties.

Based on the number of brothers in the chapter the fraternity has not been able to hold chapter meetings, rituals, all house dinners and other all chapter events in the existing dining/common space.

Many of you know that the chapter house is owned by DU. In the past few months we have been working with the University on plans to improve and enlarge our house and home. The main focus of this project will be the expansion of the dining room into a space large enough to hold all chapter events. For safety purposes, a fire suppression system will be installed, the main floor powder room will be made ADA compliant and the original 1959 boiler will be replaced. The University has agreed to partially participate in this project.

More details will be circulated in the near future on this exciting project.

We hope to complete this work within the next 20 months.

We are bringing this to your attention at this time if any of you would be interested in making an end of the year donation to DU earmarked for this project.

Donations are tax deductible (within the extent of IRS regulations).

Zeta Beta Tau — A Fraternity Without Pledging Since 1989

26 years ago, Zeta Beta Tau made history by becoming the first fraternity to abolish pledging and remove all two-tier membership practices. Today, that decision is more relevant than ever as fraternities, sororities, colleges and universities, and other student organizations discuss ways to eliminate hazing practices.

UNIVERSITY of DENVER

From Zeta Beta Tau's
Good and Welfare
November Edition 2015
Iota Chapter Advisory Board
University of Denver

ZBT has a growing focus on creating successful, thriving advisory boards to support our chapters in all areas.

In 2015, the Iota Chapter's advisory board was named the Maxwell Hyman Award for Outstanding Advisor/Advisory Board for its cohesive, comprehensive support of the University of Denver brotherhood, after the International Awards Committee changed the structure of the award nomination process slightly to allow for the nomination of an advisory board unit as a whole, alongside individual advisors, in the spirit of our new comprehensive focus.

The nine-member board serving as advisors to the Iota Chapter at the University of Denver specialize in all areas that lead to chapter success — programming, finance, housing, heritage, community service, recruitment and more. These men put in countless hours to improving the Iota Chapter and to supporting the undergraduate and alumni brothers. Every Executive Board officer or undergraduate chairman has an advisor assigned to work with him, and the advisors hold quarterly training seminars for existing officers and training for incoming officers.

The undergraduate leaders of the chapter say they appreciate the almost daily contact from the advisors and could not be more thankful for all their assistance.

The Iota Chapter advisory board includes:

Peter H. Belsky, Iota (University of Denver) '08, Assistant Chapter Advisor; Gary L. Berz, Iota (University of Denver) '70, Assistant Chapter Advisor; William C. Duncan, Iota (University of Denver) '13, Assistant Chapter Advisor; Past International President Stephen P. Ehrlich, Esq., Iota (University of Denver) '70, Chapter Advisor; Christopher J. Fettig, Iota (University of Denver) '11, Assistant Chapter Advisor; Greg Grauberger, Faculty Advisor; Kyle J. Leigh, Iota (University of Denver) '09, Assistant Chapter Advisor; Dr. Michael B. Tracy, Alpha Delta (University of Southern California) '97, Assistant Chapter Advisor; Zachary N. Wallace, Iota (University of Denver) '15, Assistant Chapter Advisor and Scott Adams and Mark Goldenberg as Assistant Chapter Advisors.

The board also works with a strong house corporation: Gary Berz, Chris Fettig and Steve Ehrlich serve as House Corporation directors.

Grads vs Undergrads Annual Football Game and Chicago Alumni Dinner..

ALUMNI WIN AGAIN 44-16

Our annual touch football game vs. Undergraduates was held at Observatory Park on Sunday Oct. 25th at 10:00 a.m. and was followed by brunch at the NY Deli.

Behind the strong arm of Nick Miscioscia the alumni handling defeated a spirited group of undergraduates in the 2015 Alumni vs. Undergraduate touch football game. Thanks to all the alumni that came to play especially the season veterans: Rick Sapkin, Mike Kaplan, Keith Frankl and Steve Ehrlich. Gary Berz kept us all in line as referee. Please note that it was the young alumni that made the difference! Cunning and guile can only go so far.

Alumni/Undergrad Highlights

The annual Brothers versus alumni football game turned out to be yet another outstanding victory for the alumni. We had great weather, lots of fun, and lots of friendly competitiveness.

ZETA BETA TAU FOUNDATION

Bruce Saiber Memorial Iota Chapter Education Fund

The Zeta Beta Tau Foundation provides academic scholarship awards and, through grants to ZBT, funding for the Fraternity's educational leadership programs. Iota Chapter has benefited greatly from both programs over the years. The Bruce Saiber Memorial / Iota Chapter Education Fund with the Zeta Beta Tau Foundation has enabled Iota Chapter to send more than the Fraternity-required number of delegates to the leadership programs thus helping them to become better chapter and campus leaders as well as helping prepare them to be leaders in their communities after graduation from DU.

Bruce Saiber aka "Uncle Brucie" Iota (University of Denver) '67 was a leader throughout his life. He was a leader in Iota Chapter as an undergraduate brother and as an alumnus, serving as Chapter Advisor. After graduating from the University of Denver School of Hotel Administration, Bruce served on the National Staff of Phi Sigma Delta Fraternity. Bruce went on to develop restaurant concepts in Denver, Miami, Palm Springs and Los Angeles.

In order to ensure there are funds available for current and future generations of ZBT Iota brothers to attend and benefit from the ZBT leadership programs, we must continue to grow the Bruce Saiber Memorial/Iota Chapter Education Fund with the Zeta Beta Tau Foundation. Your tax-deductible gifts to the Foundation will be applied to the Fund and will be used exclusively for Iota DU brother leadership education. Please click the web link below to access the Foundation's on-line donation page, follow the directions and select the Bruce Saiber Memorial/Iota Chapter Education Fund from the drop-down list of funds. Thank you in advance for supporting the Zeta Beta Tau Foundation and the Bruce Saiber Memorial/Iota Chapter Education Fund.

ZBT IOTA Recruitment & Initiation

Now that fall recruitment is behind us, we would like to introduce our newest class of 27 brothers!

Report from: ZBT's Executive Director

As we begin the calendar academic year, we have a lot to look forward to as an organization. We have officially launched our new "Brotherhood for a Lifetime" strategic plan that will, without a doubt, continue to make ZBT a better and bigger fraternity. Below is a glimpse into the new plan and what you can expect throughout this first year.

Undergraduate Training

Refine our development initiatives for undergraduate brothers. Clarify how the trainings build skills that last well beyond the undergraduate experience (especially by creating more opportunities for alumni to share their experiences with students). Drive greater excitement about and consistency in the usage of training/development initiatives by improving their relevance, clarity and connection to learning outcomes.

Some of the plans in 2016 you can expect...

- The launch of "Compass" – an interactive online education program geared toward the development of all brothers, officer training/certification, peer sharing, and more
- Overhauled regional "Dover Days" program more focused on relationship building, ZBT pride, and idea sharing with peers
- Provide more effective customized officer training for chapter and colony leaders
- Amplify the relationship with Jewish Women International to take an even more aggressive stance on ending sexual violence on college campuses

Heritage Initiative

Mindful of our mission and heritage, amplify our chapter training and support to further enable our brothers to champion diversity and meaningfully impact their local Jewish communities and Jewish communities around the world.

Some of the plans in 2016 you can expect...

- In partnership with other Greek organizations, ZBT will take the lead in coordinating valuable training to assist our brothers and communities in actively addressing anti-Semitism and hate on college campuses
- Expand ZBT's Israel Advocacy program to include more undergraduates and alumni in training opportunities
- Create an official "Alternative Spring Break" program that allows brothers to impact a local community while exploring the founding roots of the Fraternity in New York City

Chapter Expansion/Retention

Reach 6,000 undergraduate brothers by building a stronger, more sustainable network of chapters by being more selective with our chapter launch strategy and by bolstering our support for existing chapters.

Some of the plans in 2016 you can expect...

- Intentionally focused expansion creating chapters on campuses that are sustainable to ZBT's future such as Muhlenberg College, Franklin & Marshall College, Columbia University, the University of Michigan, and more
- Redefine recruitment strategies for chapters & colonies to continue evolving to more values-based programs and conversations
- Introduce new systems for existing chapters and colonies to use to better track student interest

Alumni Experience

Launch a comprehensive alumni relations program that begins during the undergraduate years encompassing professional development, chapter engagement, and fellowship. Recognizing the centrality of alumni to both Fraternity and Foundation, success with this initiative depends on collaboration and communication between the organizations.

Some of the plans in 2016 you can expect...

- Increased staff presence working specifically with alumni as we better advance "Brotherhood for a Lifetime"
- Added support for alumni associations as they seek to engage more alumni in meaningful experiences
- More focused chapter advisor recruitment, retention, and recognition programs for those men who have volunteered their time with our chapters and colonies

In addition to the areas above, the Fraternity will continue working closely with the Zeta Beta Tau Foundation as we collaborate on ways to work together toward reaching the goals of both organizations. We're also working on developing new and innovative ways to reach our brothers across the globe using a more advanced technology system to ensure that no matter where our brothers may live that they always feel connected to ZBT.

It's going to be a great year and we look forward to the many alumni interested in giving their time, talent, or treasure as we build a strong tomorrow for the tens of thousands who consider it "Great to be a ZBT!"

Cordially, Fraternaly, and Sincerely,

Laurence A. Bolotin, Alpha Zeta (Florida) '01
Executive Director

Letter from the President

Iota has once again seen a great start to another year. With 24 of our juniors studying all across the globe, we kept at it in Denver and welcomed in 27 new brothers to the chapter this fall. Through quality education and brotherhood programming thus far, this has been quite the successful beginning to another great year. With fundraising efforts still ongoing, we have raised over $8,500 and have no doubt we will soon surpass our goal of $10,000 for the Children's Miracle Network. VP Robert Roetzel, as executive coordinator, has been hard at work planning the first ever DU Dance Marathon ("DU Dance-a-thon"), sponsored by ALL of DU Greek Life, which will support the Andrew McDonough B+ Foundation, taking place January 29th. And on that note, the Iota brotherhood has grown by one more this year in welcoming in Melvin, through the B+ Hero program. Melvin is in 6th grade, loves basketball, and is a survivor of osteosarcoma. We are thrilled to have been given this opportunity and have enjoyed the time spent with Melvin so far. On a personal note, it is a bittersweet moment to be writing my last Iota's Worth as president. On behalf of the entire executive board, it has been an honor to serve this great chapter over the last year. I am looking forward to passing the baton in February, hoping the chapter is left in a better place, confident that the next group in charge will take Iota to even greater heights. Good better best, never let me rest, until my good is better and my better is best. Go Iota!

C, F & S,
Ben Brentin
President of Zeta Beta Tau Fraternity, Iota Chapter

Vice-Presidents

Fall quarter was a strong one for the Powerhouse of Excellence. With the initiation of another group of eager, high caliber young men, the existing members of Iota chapter sought to show the newcomers what it means to be the number one house on campus. Our social provided many occasions for brotherhood bonding and relaxation from the classroom as we held two exchanges with sororities and many other events. That being said, academics were revamped to provide more rewards for our high achieving members and assistance through a new study regime. Our community service involvement was one of our strongest yet, taking our brothers from tabling for various charities to cleaning up mountain trails and helping with marathons. In preparation for the upcoming ZBTahiti this spring, the brothers of Iota chapter made huge strides, signing renowned artist Waka Flocka Flame. Keep your eyes open for tickets because they will be going fast! If we are not dominating in the classroom, social scene or in the community, we're probably dominating on the fields. Athletics took another huge stride in repeating as overall intramural champions as we performed strongly in University and Greek sports. It was with great pride that I acted as External Vice President and just as a member of this great brotherhood this quarter because one thing was evident; regardless of the area, we were and look to continue being a powerhouse of excellence.

It sure is great to be a Zeeb!

C, F & S,
Alexander Hill
External Vice President

The internal committees have been hard at work to create the best fraternity environment possible. Thanks to the hard work and leadership of the chairs we have not only maintained the high level of performance we expect, but surpassed that in our pursuit of excellence. Of the many achievements we have accomplished this year it is especially important to note the expansion of the BDD program over the last few weeks. Chair Jake Lotwin has done great things with the program and we couldn't be more thankful for him. Additionally, AJ Stowell has won chair of the quarter for the internal committees. His hard work in recruitment, heritage, and coordinating with our B+ Hero has made a huge impact on the fraternity. I want to thank them and all of my chairs for the hard work they have put in over the quarter.

C, F & S,
Robert Roetzel
Internal Vice President

Parent/Alumni Relations

This year, alumni and parent relations has been trying to be as productive as possible to keep our relations strong. Starting with parents weekend, we had a house full of brothers and their parents to attend the desert ceremony we hosted. After the homecoming hockey game, brothers and their parents stopped by the house for some treats and guest speakers to learn more about our organization and what we're about. In addition, much work has been done to improve alumni relations. Whether this was through gaining contact information for graduated brothers, or events such as poker night and alumni versus active brothers football, we pride ourselves on building and maintaining a strong relationship with everyone. We also try to provide information about alumni to our active brothers as well, as they look up to these brothers for guidance and help if the two have possibly a similar field of study, or aspiring employment fields. The work we do here will hopefully benefit brothers not only in their college years, but hopefully for many years to come after school.

C, F & S,
Jake Michelotti
Alumni/Parental Relations Chairman

Academics

As Academics Chair for Iota, I oversee brothers' grades and their academic progress throughout the quarter, working closely with those brothers who do not meet our GPA standard of 2.75 in a given term. The committee holds weekly study table sessions open to all brothers, and academic improvement plans are also put in place for those brothers who do not achieve our standard. Iota continues to boast one of the highest chapter GPAs on the University of Denver campus, and the committee was proud to see the number of brothers on academic probation decrease by half between the Spring and Fall quarters of 2015. The chapter continues to work hard to establish itself as the top academic fraternity on campus, and we have seen a tremendous effort from all our brothers to improve their own grades and in doing so improve the fraternity as a whole. We are optimistic as the 2015-2016 school year moves forward, and cannot wait to see just how much progress we as a chapter can make!

C, F & S,
Tyler Irani
Academics Chairman

Brotherhood Development

What can I say about this quarter of brotherly development that has not already been said about the wheel, sliced bread, and the moving sidewalk? Our goal this quarter was simple: establish the strongest brotherhood on campus once again. Why? Because our great president told us that ZBT has the strongest brotherhood on campus and as his brothers we must make him proud.

We as a committee felt that our brothers needed to be given more opportunity to enjoy the fruits of our fraternity through various outings and events. Some of these events were food related, others were active, but regardless, the main focus of all of these events was to turn friends into family. Our proudest moment of the quarter was undoubtedly Bros-giving; a wonderful spectacle of hungry young gentlemen, stressed from finals week being greeted by a glorious smorgasbord of Kentucky Fried Chicken and a disgusting amount of gravy. While that meal sat heavy in the brothers' stomachs the next day, fewer times has it been better to be a Zeb than when you get to enjoy the little moments this when times are tough.

With fresh snow on the ground, BDD sees a fresh opportunity to foster stronger brotherhood. Come the winter quarter, we have ever more events coming to bring the family closer together than ever before.

C, F & S,
Jake Lotwin
Brotherhood Development Chairman

Risk Management

Iota chapter's Risk Management team continues to impress, with each brother taking turns being sober driver and/or sober brother during the weekend nights. We practice and preach the principal of "being your brother's keeper." Through the leadership of our fraternities' executive board and the sound risk management techniques practiced throughout the entire brotherhood, we strive for this every day. The new freshmen are immediately taught what it means to be your brother's keeper, as well as the importance of sober team. The men on risk management committee are determined to keep Iota running smoothly and out of trouble!

C, F & S,
Alec Finley
Risk Management Chairman

Community Service

The start of the school year also signaled the start of the community service season, with the brothers of Iota giving back to the community in many ways. Iota brothers helped overwhelmed freshmen and their overstressed parents move into the freshmen dorms on move in day on a gorgeous Sunday morning. Brothers also helped clean hiking trails in Golden, Colorado one Saturday afternoon, helping keep nature clean and enjoyable for their fellow citizens. And alongside the hard work of the Philanthropy committee, Iota brothers spent many hours tabling and drumming up support and donations for this year's Get On The Ball campaign. Overall, this quarter was a great success, and we're looking forward to another successful quarter come January.

C, F & S,
Nick Sarnelli
Community Service Chairman

Athletics

Sports are life! We had a good season this fall, winning broom-ball once again, and also participating in volleyball, soccer, and flag football. The flag football team had an unfortunate upset in the championship game, but they have the right mind set to come out and win a championship next season. This Iota chapter is focused on the winter season and is getting mentally prepared to win the Greek athletics championship as always.

Winter sports are approaching soon. With our towering new initiate class, we expect to win basketball by a large margin, and nothing can stop the broom-ball team as always. As well as these intramural sports, many brothers are excited for the mountains this year with much snow expected.

As well as the intramural sports this past fall, we also implemented the first annual ZBT pool tournament which was followed by our winners, Andrew Deslodge and Corey Dubray, getting their pictures framed next to our pool table as well as receiving winnings of $50.00 each. Next quarter we were holding a street hockey tournament as well as a basketball tournament at our house to get more brothers involved. Excited for the rest of the year to come.

C, F & S,
Charlie Canty
Athletic Chairman

Philanthropy

DO CHARITY. Always!

Finishing off the 2014/2015 year strong with Philanthropy, ZBT Iota searched to continue its momentum into fall 2015. Our annual 'Get On The Ball' Philanthropic event, aiming to raise money for the Children's Miracle Network and children's cancer research, kicked off with a bang with huge campus wide and brotherhood support. As of December 1st, this year's event has raised nearly $9,000 with a year long goal of over 10K. This Winter Quarter, we are excited to announce that Brother Robert Roetzal, Senior and Vice President, is spearheading the first annual DU Dance Marathon — a campus wide dance marathon aiming to raise money for the B+ foundation. Though we as a brotherhood believe strongly in our ability to make a difference, its brothers like Rob who continually exceed expectations. Though this is a flagship event for DU, our expectations and excitement remain high.

Zeta Beta Tau, Iota chapter in particular, has had a long standing history with its philanthropic support, often raising some of the highest annual funds for our philanthropic partners than any other ZBT chapter nationwide and Fraternity on the University of Denver campus. As the years progress, we are determined to continue this trend and wholeheartedly believe that we can make a difference for those who are less fortunate.

Great to be a Zeeb.

C, F & S,
Ben Kanellitsas
Philanthropy Chairman

Our Rituals

This fall we were happy to initiate 27 new members to our brotherhood. For initiation ritual our advisors were able to attend. During retreat, new brothers were able to connect through old brothers stories and experiences. The rituals of ZBT Iota are continuing to bring out brotherhood closer together. As is a ZBT tradition we start each meeting with a reading from our Ritual. In planning our programming we are mindful that it should bring our ritual to life.

Our House

This fall quarter, our sophomore class and President, Ben enjoyed each other's company every single day, from late August to late November. In that stretch of time, the house has become a home, a place for both work and play. Any given day there will be at least two brothers doing homework in the kitchen, two playing pool, another watching TV, and the odd man doing laundry. The house has definitely developed its own culture and rhythm. While we all enjoy spending time with our family for six weeks over break, we also can't wait to get back to living in.

I am on the Board of the East West Center in Honolulu, appointed by then Secretary of State, Hillary Clinton. This January, I become co-chair of Pacific Council for International Policy and I am Vice-Chair of National Democratic Institute for International Affairs (NDI). The wedding was in May and was fantastic...Lots of love, laughs and happiness. My son, Scott, is Executive Assistant/Jr. Publicist to Steven Huvane of Slate PR in Hollywood, California.

I am happy to report I made a donation in the amount of $2000 this should make its way to ZBT IOTA Chapter via DU. My law practice is now located in Greenwood Village.

I am a featured lecturer at a continuing education seminar. This is the second one this year. We have remodeled our house. Our daughter is doing well at CSU. Her horse gives her lots of support. And we support the horse. My wife is healthy and happy and likes remodeling the house. I look forward to skiing this winter. Hope that's enough news.

Senior Budget Analyst, City of Sunrise Florida (retired from Federal government). Moved to Ft. Lauderdale last February and love it. Great to finally be out of the snow-belt. Recently adopted a deaf Australian Shepherd that was abandoned in Southern Maryland when he was 1 day old. Also found out that two of my cousins are also Zeebs. I've become very active in the ZBT Alumni group here in Southern Florida, even meeting some fellow Iota brothers who graduated before me. Also helping the brothers at Lynn University any way I can with career counseling and job searches.

email: MPersow@aol.com Also on Facebook.

I work for Microsoft as an Account Technology Strategist (ATS) working with State and Local Government customers in Colorado and New Mexico. I help these customers with their adoption of Microsoft Cloud technology such as Azure, Office 365, and Windows 10.

I'm working with my daughter Sarah to have her become a CEO at age 11 and to sell her own line of Oh No You Didn't (ONYD) t-shirts and handbags. Please feel free to reuse ONYD on social media and texting in the same way you might use LOL! My other daughter Ella is 8 and her advanced soccer team went 8-0 for the entire CY15 Fall season. My wife Cindy consults with Disney Travel and helps folks plan out their cruises and visits to Disney World and Disney Land.

Iota Chapter Alumni News

I've been flying Cessna's and Pipers out of Centennial Airport in Colorado and I'm very close to completing my FAA Private Pilot certificate.

After 15 years we recently moved into a beautiful new home, 8 blocks from our previous address J - we love Lone Tree Colorado for its location and great neighbors.

I'm the Director of Innovation at VCA.

I just got married to my beautiful wife, Alexis Antin who I dated when I was in college at DU and then reconnected seven years later. ZBT Iota founding fathers (Matt Landes, Ibrahim Al-Murjan and Alex Zorensky) and brothers (Alex Plotkin) were groomsmen of mine on that special day. We currently live in Los Angeles, California.

Recently left my Leadership Development MBA program at Bank of America to start a new Innovation department at VCA Animal Hospitals. The purpose of this department is to create an environment that can unlock the minds of our employees to be creative as we search and discover for new ways to improve the lives of pets and their families.

I have been with Deloitte since September 2012 and am currently an Audit Senior in the Aerospace & Defense Industry. My wife Abbi and I just recently moved to the Washington DC area from Denver. We're excited about the new opportunities with Deloitte that I have out here and to explore a new part of the country.

IOTA Website & Facebook

We've revamped the website for Iota. New design includes over 90 years of Iota's history at DU. The site is more interactive, intuitive, and permanent than the previous site... focusing on recruits, parents and alumni, we know the website will become a greater portal for our family to gather and learn about Iota's values and accomplishments. Visit: <http://www.duzbt.com>

Our new Facebook page has been updated as well: <http://www.facebook.com/ZBTiota>

Iota's overall calendar and recruitment events schedule are implemented automatically. Design matches our website, creating a more cohesive and memorable look and feel. Visit Zeta Beta Tau at the University of Denver. <http://www.duzbt.com>

Whitney and I, my girlfriend of six years, got engaged in Lake Tahoe in July. We are busy planning the wedding for next June and our rehearsal dinner will be at the chapter house! Just kidding, Whitney nixed that idea, but it will be at the HRTM building on campus.
