IOTA ADVISORS' UPDATE

It has been an interesting and challenging year at IOTA. We are pleased to report that we have 80 brothers and have added nearly 30 brothers to our ranks this school year.

We want to wish our graduation seniors all the best. These brothers have been with us through the Covid era and we appreciate them staying with us. We thank Aidan Vaughey and his leadership team for their efforts this school year. We welcomed Jack Moser and his team during winter quarter. They have done a great job in elevating the programming at IOTA.

Semi-formal, spring formal, retreat, ZBTahiti aka ZBT Presents, Gift of Life swabbing, collecting socks for shelters, intramural participation, speakers on risk management, anti-Semitism, etiquette, exchanges with sororities, an alumni panel, alumni poker night, is a sampling of what has been going on at IOTA.

The chapter did raise over $10,000 for Children's Miracle Network this past calendar year!

We are excited with the prospect for growth in our brotherhood next school year as well as improvements in quality and quantity of programming. We look forward to the chapter's membership being more engaged on campus with every brother being in a student organization or club.

We had 24 brothers make the Dean's List (over 3.75 GPA) or Hornbeck's Scholars List (4.0 GPA) winter quarter and an overall improvement in our chapter's GPA. We thank Greg Grauberger of Faculty Advisor for his assistance and mentoring in this area.

I want to thank my fellow advisors and house corporation directors for their assistance: Gary Berz, Kyle Leigh, Matt Meyer, Ryan Martin, Adam Segall, Alec Hurst, Robert Roetzel, Chris Fettig, Ben Brentin, and Scott Adams. Their participation and mentoring make a huge difference.

This summer we will be painting the common areas in the chapter house and hopefully buying new furniture for the living room along with making some other repairs.

It has been a great year on the alumni front with being able to finally celebrate on 100th chartering anniversary. A few thank you's to Don Reisfeld for the tremendous job he does on our publications and to Jay Reano for his effort on the Denver Area Third Thursday Lunch program. To ZBT's staff and leadership for their continued support as well as DU's FSL office for their support and mentor, and DU's Facilities staff for their efforts in keeping our chapter house in great shape.

Last, but not least we remember brothers Bruce Balonick class of 1970 and Doug Anton class of 1979. They will be missed but not forgotten, see page 37 for obituaries.

ZBT CEO

It's a great time to be a ZBT! The Fraternity is celebrating 125 years of Brotherhood. Congratulations as well to the Iota Chapter on hosting an incredible Centennial Celebration last fall!

Growing our Brotherhood

This has been the first full year of post-pandemic brotherhood on many campuses and for many of our youngest brothers. Today's students are bringing excited energy to recruitment, greeting many potential new brothers and growing the Brotherhood. Some highlights from recruitment include 59 new brothers at the Lambda Chapter at the University of Texas, 66 new brothers at Beta Gamma Chapter at Indiana University and an impressive 88 brothers initiated at Alpha Omicron at the University of Arizona. Many chapters are excited to share why it's great to be a ZBT with new brothers.

We are very proud of the Eta Lambda Chapter at Emory University, who just celebrated its Chartering Ceremony after being re-founded just before the COVID-19 lockdowns. We are very pleased as well to announce that Alpha Omicron at the University of Miami just earned approval for their Charter in an incredible 13 months after the Prospective Chapter was founded last spring.

Zeta Beta Tau is thrilled to launch a highly anticipated re-founding project in the fall at Florida State University. Zeta Alpha will be a great place for new brothers to thrive. We continue to explore some additional growth opportunities as students reach out to ZBT International Headquarters requesting that we bring the world's first Jewish fraternity to their campus.

If you know any students who will be matriculating in the next year or two, please provide their information at zbt.org/refer so that we can reach out about ZBT. If you are interested in helping with chapter advising, we are in need of alumni around the country and virtually to support brothers. Alumni engagement is essential to a chapter's success. It's great to be a ZBT!

ZBT in 2023

Overall, the Fraternity continues to expand initiatives and programming in hate prevention and antisemitism awareness. ZBT remains as strongly committed as ever to being a voice for the Jewish people, especially on college campuses. A new staff-led program is called Antisemitism: Past and Present, offering an overview of the history of Jewish persecution. This training reached over 600 ZBTs in 2022. ZBT also continues to work with external partners like Jewish Women International and Hillel International to educate ZBTs and their fellow students. Chapters at the local level are engaging in a variety of activities and educational opportunities that might surprise you with their creativity, though outdoor sports and games, group hikes, retreat weekend bonfires and other fun among Zeebs will forever be beloved among brothers.

What's new with brothers and chapters of ZBT.

ZETA BETA TAU FOUNDATION

Celebrating Visionaries for their leadership.

The University of Denver Zeta Beta Tau and Phi Sigma Delta merged brotherhood recently achieved an accomplishment that few other chapters have reached – 100 years!

Over the weekend of October 6 to 8, the brothers of Iota Chapter at the University of Denver (DU) hosted their centennial celebration. Iota was founded in 1920; brothers and guests were thrilled to be able to mark this moment in history, finally, after a two-year delay due to the pandemic. Master of Ceremonies was 50-plus year Chapter Advisor and Past International President Stephen P. Ehrlich, Esq., Iota (University of Denver) 1970.

Dozens of brothers and guests helped honor this occasion over a weekend's worth of events, including International President Jonathan D. Frieden, Phi Epsilon (University of Virginia) 1994; Fraternity Chief Executive Officer Libby Anderson, CAE; Zeta Beta Tau Foundation Chief Executive

Brothers and guests enjoyed a wide variety of events over the weekend including alumni vs undergraduate football game.

Officer Faron A. Lewitt, Psi (University of Alabama) 1997; Brother Richard M. Sapkin, Iota (University of Denver) 1983, former university trustee; University of Denver Chancellor Jeremy Haefner; past president of ZBT National Housing Gregg F. Witt, Iota (University of Denver) 1977; DU Associate Director, Fraternity and Sorority Life Christopher Miofsky; and many prominent Iota Chapter alumni alongside undergraduate brothers and guests.

"The 100th celebration was a huge success. My thanks to Brothers Gary Berz and Don Reisfeld along with the reunion committee," Past International President Ehrlich said.

•Thursday: Happy hour

•Friday: Morning golf outing, registration and lunch reception at Del Frisco's Grille, DU hockey game followed by dessert reception and hours of the Iota Chapter house. At the reception, Brother Aidan E. Vaughey, Iota 2023, then-Chapter President, gave a hearty welcome to the alumni and guests. Miofsky from the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life gave an informative overview of Greek Life at DU. Brother Edward (Ned) Porges Ed.D, Iota 1962, reflected on the history of the Chapter house. Brother Porges lived in the facility first in 1959. Iota's oldest alumnus, Brother Dr. Joseph S.

Szyliowicz, Iota 1953, was introduced to the Brotherhood. The celebration included a 100-year Iota logo that was made into a sheet cake and served by Don Reisfeld.

•Saturday: DU campus tour, hiking at Matthews/Winters Park, tennis rounds, city tour, brewery visit and in the afternoon alumni vs. undergraduate touch football.

At the dinner, Iota Chapter's oldest alumnus shared additional remarks. "When I graduated from DU in 1953, our Fraternity brothers gave each graduating senior a great gift, this distinctive mug. And, I have always kept it on my desk as a reminder of my time in the Fraternity and the University of Denver," Joe Szyliowicz, said.

Brother Ehrlich was honored for his service to the chapter – an astounding 56 years.

"Steve, you are the ZBT and IOTA 'G.O.A.T.' (Greatest Of All Time), the best of the best, as an educator and fraternity advisor. Fraternity is for a lifetime and may our friendship live forever. Congratulations and thank you for 56-plus years of dedication and leadership," Brother Reisfeld said in the tribute.

Many years of effort went into this event and many dedicated volunteers helped in planning. Brother Donald Reisfeld, Iota 1976, produced a nostalgic video presentation as well as many of the materials for the event. Brother Prescott (Scott) J. Adams, Iota 2012, led a memorial ceremony at the dinner. Welcome and invocation were given by Walter L. Sutton, Ph.D, Iota 1967.

Richard Goodman '78 was presented an NCAA Championship ring by the University of Denver hockey team.

Why not stop by the ZBT house if you're in Denver... you'll be pleasantly surprised!

Hi Steve: Hope all is well with you. Jodie and I passed thru Denver today (Feb 24th) on our way to ski Keystone...and stopped by the ZBT house. The nicest young men welcomed us: Aidan Vaughey, Nihal Padhy, Cole Hill, Charlie and Sam Girgis.

These brothers couldn't have been nicer. I am so glad to see "IOTA" thriving...and a Brummer Cup award winner again...certainly a tribute to you. The undergrads spoke very highly of you. I really enjoyed seeing our composite back up on the wall...and seeing Yatsu was a real treat. I hope to be able to attend the next reunion. Jeff Gerchenson '70

Congratulations to Brother Norman Porges

Ned Porges', 1962 younger brother Norman Porges, University of Denver 1966, Iota Chapter, and his son, Evan, were recipients of honorary doctorates from California State University - Stanislaus on May 25, 2023 by the university's president. Norman and Evan Porges, have been actively involved for years in promoting business student success, hiring students, being donors, and more. About 30 years ago, Norman began an ecologically sensitive car wash business in Modesto, California that grew to about 25 locations in central California. It was known as PrimeShine Car Wash. Evan became president as Norman stepped down. Norman and Evan became more involved in regional government and higher education endeavors. Norman recently sold the chain of car washes. They are both now fully retired and fully devoted to doing public service. Norman is pleased to share this honor with family, and associates, past and present.

→ Norman Porges (b. 23/10/1942) divorced Wilma Geritz

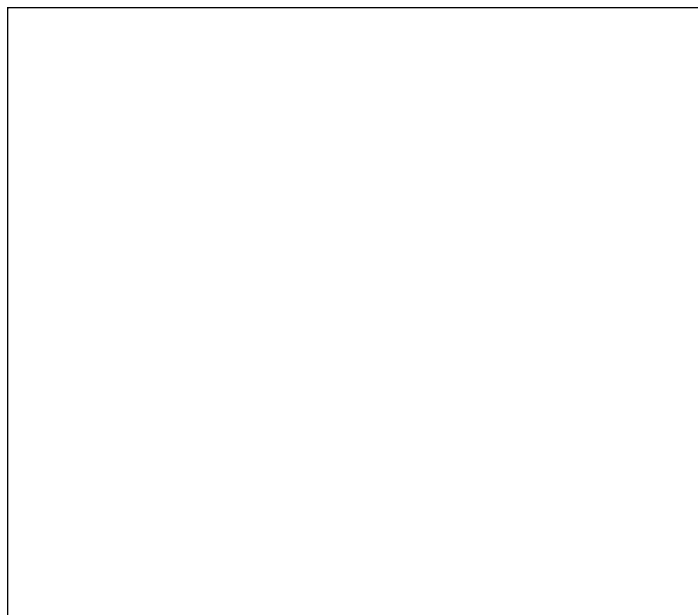

I was born in New York City and completed my higher education at the University of Denver. I started out in corporate America, traveling the country solving business problems for Fortune 100 companies such as Squibb Pharmaceutical and Beatrice Foods. The tenth move in my 20-year business career was to Modesto to manage a large frozen food distribution and storage facility. I opened the first Prime Shine in 1991 after vowing to "change the way people think about car washing". I continue to live in Modesto and enjoy good food and wine, extensive travel, and that occasional round of golf. * <http://www.primeshine.com/>

Skijoring in Colorado

Steamboat's Winter Carnival

Skijoring combines the thrill of a rodeo with the elements of winter. The sport is said to have originated in Scandinavia, where residents rode the historic equivalent of skis and were pulled by horses as a means of transportation. It has since evolved into a competitive sport that involves racing, obstacle courses and, more recently, snowboards.

Each year during ski season, John Meltzer '74, volunteers as a cowboy riding his horse for San Juan Skijoring. This year's Skijoring event was held on January 14-15 at the Ouray County Fairgrounds in Ridgeway, Colorado. Visit: www.sanjuanskijoring.com

Christopher A.
Miofsky, M.Ed.
Associate Director
Fraternity & Sorority
Life Advisor

Hello from the University of Denver. My name is Christopher Miofsky and I serve as the Associate Director of Fraternity and Sorority Life (FSL). It is a pleasure to share a few updates with you. Since the beginning of the school year, we continue to work to bring our community back together after the height of the pandemic.

- We have begun a strategic planning process for our community to ensure that we can prove we are living up to our values. I thank Steve Ehrlich for serving on this committee as an alumni representative with extensive institutional knowledge. The plan will be made publicly available once it is finally approved.

- We have also continued to migrate processes online (roster updates, F.O.R.G.E. (formerly known as Accreditation), and others). We look forward to continuing to move more processes online to provide easier access to information for our members. We plan to pilot a council dues payment online beginning the winter quarter.

- We have been able to slightly increase staff capacity within FSL by sharing a Program Coordinator, Allie Tookmanian, with the Office of Student Engagement and two graduate students, Isabel Salvatore and Victoria Pereira who are working on several community wide initiatives related to brotherhood/sisterhood/siblinghood and health & safety.

I want to recognize the generosity of the chapter during its Centennial Celebration. It was wonderful to see so many alums and friends be present to support the chapter on this special occasion. I was humbled to be asked to say a few words during the reception after the hockey game and to be invited to the pre-game happy hour. I am thankful for our long partnership with Zeta Beta Tau and the support you all have given to our campus over our many years of partnership. I wish you all a safe and wonderful holiday season!

ZBT continues to lead the Greek world with its JOURNEY PROGRAM, a non-pledging, non-hazing program for assimilation and education of all brothers.

In 1989 ZBT eliminated pledging as a tradition. While we have had our challenges gaining universal acceptance from all chapters, ZBT is clearly a safer and better brotherhood because of this courageous choice. Other fraternities have now followed our lead.

We are proud of our brothers at IOTA who have been properly implementing this program. For more information about THE JOURNEY PROGRAM go to:

President

My name is Jack Moser; I am blessed to be recognized as the current President of Iota. I am a sophomore from Toronto Canada and enjoy doing all things that involve activity. I cannot sit still. Assuming the role of President was a tremendous responsibility that I gladly accepted. It was my duty to guide the fraternity towards greatness, ensuring that our values and traditions remained at the forefront of everything we did. I recognized the potential within our chapter and sought to harness it, driving positive change, and fostering a sense of unity among our members. One of my primary goals as President was to create an environment where every member could thrive academically, personally, and professionally. I implemented a comprehensive leadership development program that provided our members with the tools and resources they needed to excel both within the fraternity and beyond. Through mentorship and guidance, I encouraged individuals to explore their passions, embrace challenges, and reach their full potential. By creating a strong network of friendships and relationships, we become a better brotherhood, better chapter, and better ZBT. I am honored to be apart of a long-lasting list of presidents for this chapter that I hope will continue to grow for decades to come.

Faculty Advisor

I am Greg Grauberger, the faculty advisor for ZBT, I work as an advisor at the Daniels College of Business and work closely with Daniels students and their families. My opportunity to serve for ZBT gives me the chance to branch out and enjoy the privilege of working with a group of brothers who are very visible and distinguished on campus. In the time I have been associated with ZBT, I have witnessed the energy and effort that the house places against all campus activities, creating well-rounded brothers who are creating meaningful, lifelong networks. As a priority, I want the current brothers to think back to the time that they joined ZBT, the commitment to stand shoulder to shoulder with their brothers, to respect and be there for them. Now, step back to re-examine that original commitment they made to themselves and to the others who are their ZBT family. Given that perspective, how can they personally extend and increase that commitment inside, and outside the ZBT community? What are some strategies and tactics to accomplish this academically, culturally, and socially? These will be some areas we explore in the future, and as parents and alums, your feedback is welcome.

I am very honored and flattered by the recognition, and to have been able to receive the Excellence, Chapter Faculty Adviser award in person. In my position in Daniels, I work with a lot of students, and a lot of Greek students, and each day I feel most fortunate to be connected specifically as a ZBT Brother with everyone individually, and as a group. It's a tremendous house, but one that has not even reached its potential academically, which is both a challenging and exciting proposition. While last night provides a snapshot for earned celebration, it also gives us the impetus to direct our momentum to the future and to visualize the accomplishments ahead of us.

Thanks again, and please give all the Brothers my sincere thanks at the upcoming chapter meeting.

Operations Director

As the Operations Director of the Zeta Beta Tau IOTA chapter, my role is important to the smooth functioning of our organization.

Here is a brief overview: I actively participate in the transition program at the beginning of each academic term. During this program, I set goals and establish clear expectations for both myself and chair positions to help effectively fill our roles.

I regularly attend Executive Board and Chapter meetings. In participating in smaller meetings with to tackle more specialized tasks, I both stay in the loop and can provide general input for growth.

I maintain regular communication with chair positions and the Executive Board to help facilitate communication collaboration throughout our chapter.

One of the main jobs I do as the Operations Director is review our governing documents and serve as the point person for completion of Standards of Excellence – the benchmark for measuring our chapter’s performance. I assign sections of the report to other officers and chairmen as needed, coordinating their efforts and ensuring a comprehensive submission.

In the absence of the President, I step into his role. This involves assuming their responsibilities and providing leadership to the chapter, ensuring its continued operation and cohesion.

I oversee the Academic Chairman, collaborating closely to support our chapter’s academic initiatives and programs. Together, we work towards promoting academic excellence among our members.

I actively assist all committees within our chapter, this involves collaborating with the committees to accomplish tasks as well as providing reports during executive meetings. I also ensure that every brother is placed on at least one active committee to encourage engagement and participation.

Throughout the year, I will continue to develop and maintain comprehensive transition materials. These resources are intended to facilitate a smooth transition for my successor, providing him with the necessary information and tools to excel in this role.

C, F & S,
Sam Girgis
Operations Director

Communications Director

As Communications Director of ZBT Iota, I do a lot of the behind the scenes work and a lot of the paperwork, while, of course, overseeing communications with the parents, alumni, brothers, advisors, and University of Denver faculty. Being in charge of our master calendar, I take care of keeping our cork and white board in order every month to help the brothers know what all we are doing in terms of programming and community service as well as notifying the DU faculty of all of our programming. On top of this, I am the keeper of our constitution and bylaws – meaning I update and change them if necessary and always have the most updated copies in the case that they need to be reviewed. Lastly, I keep minutes, in case anybody is unable to attend, and take attendance during chapter and send out a weekly update of our programming for the week along with any other school, Greek, or personal events (such as birthdays). Other than that, I help out in any way that is asked of me and just try to keep our fraternity running as smoothly as it should be.

Standards Director

The role of the Standards Director in Zeta Beta Tau Fraternity is crucial to ensure that all members uphold the organization's principles and values. The Standards Director is responsible for leading the Standards Board, which is a separate entity from the Executive Board and serves as a chairman. They work closely with other board members to establish and enforce expectations and Brotherhood Quality Standards. Additionally, the Standards Director is responsible for recognizing brothers who exceed expectations and holding those who violate policies and expectations accountable. The Standards Director plays a significant role in creating a culture of integrity and brotherhood within Zeta Beta Tau Fraternity.

In addition to enforcing standards, the Standards Director also collaborates with other members of the Executive Board to ensure that the organization's goals and objectives are being met. They attend Executive Board meetings as needed, communicate regularly with the chapter advisor, and work with other board members to conduct the Semiannual Brotherhood Review Vote. By performing these duties, the Standards Director helps to promote a culture of personal responsibility, self-discipline, and intellectual curiosity that is consistent with Zeta Beta Tau Fraternity's Credo and mission..

Finance Director

The role of finance director within the fraternity encompasses various responsibilities that are crucial for maintaining the financial stability and success of the organization. The finance director is primarily responsible for managing the master budget of operations. I work closely with other members of the fraternity's executive board to develop and implement financial policies, create budgets for events and activities, and allocate funds appropriately. Additionally, I am involved in collecting membership dues and working with our brothers to set up payment plans to better fit their financial circumstances in order to make the fraternity experience more accessible to all. I work to achieve financial transparency and accountability within the organization and prepare financial reports which are presented to the fraternity members and executive board. These reports provide an overview of the fraternity's financial health, highlighting income and expenses

I am in charge of helping with new brothers get acclimated to the fraternity. I also work with Patrick on the new bro education we have each quarter. I look forward to continuing this role for the next year.

Recruitment Director

As recruitment director, I have a critical role in shaping the future of our fraternity as I bring it into the future. I am responsible for setting up and ensuring that the chapter attracts new members who align with our core principles. Mostly my job entails a lot of communication with the rest of E-board and the fraternity. It involves some planning about rush events, but mostly it's about contacting potential new members and trying to get them to come rush our fraternity. I also then present the PNMS before the chapter and talk about how they would better our fraternity before we vote on whether they get a bid or not. Recruitment is important to fraternities because it keeps us growing and able to be involved and have an active presence in our community. As Steve would say, "recruitment is the lifeblood of the fraternity."

Athletics

The biggest part of being athletics chairman is organizing intramural athletics. Having an ongoing dialog with the staff at Coors fitness center that organize intramurals has been very helpful in keeping everything organized and flowing. In addition to navigating the intramural athletics portal, I have stayed enthusiastic and persistent in motivating my brothers to get engaged and play on at least one team, if not more.

Part of keeping a good reputation is also enforcing good sportsmanship during games, so I try to make it to one or two intramural games for ZBT each week. As the athletics chairman I try to set a positive example for my brothers in this way, as well as participating in the games. Other than these duties, athletics chairman should be organizing small tournaments for games at the house and incentivizing participation with rewards, such as ZBT merchandise. The athletics chairman is also in charge of the athletics budget, which I have used to reimburse brothers for the cost of IM's this quarter.

Community Service

Hi, my name is Thomas Mooney and I am this year's Community Service Chair for the Iota Chapter of Zeta Beta Tau. The role of Community Service Chair is to make sure our brothers leave a positive impact on the community and help out wherever needed. Each quarter every brother is required to participate in at least 10 hours of community service. My mission is to create plenty of options and make it easy for each brother to reach the 10-hour requirement. So far as Community Service Chair I have worked with organizations like Gift of life, Penny Flight and the Mizel Museum. We also had opportunities on campus where we wrote cards for alumni returning for their alumni reunion. I am very excited to continue my term as Community Service Chair and create events for my brothers to participate in that will leave a positive impact.

Recruitment Director

The recruitment director in the IOTA chapter of Zeta Beta Tau has various responsibilities and goals needed to maintain the life of the fraternity. It starts with being well connected with the University. Being an active member of the campus is crucial for finding new members and creating a good image for the fraternity. What follows is building a strong relationship with the potential new brothers and making sure they have the values we have in our fraternity. We must plan events and gather brothers to attend them during rush. We must work well with other chairman such as the Finance Director so that we can effectively create good opportunities while keeping the fraternity together. I work closely with the other Recruitment Director, Tyler Girouard, and together, build the chapter we envision of being a brotherhood of a lifetime. Recruiting properly is something that will benefit the alumni, current, and new members.

Brotherly Overwatch and Brotherly Development

I am Milo Waltenbaugh, and I am currently serving as the Iota chapters' Brotherhood Development Director. As BDD chair, it is my responsibility to ensure that new members of ZBT remain members for all four years of college to keep our community strong. I get to use some of our budget to schedule events such as rafting, Frisbee golf, Big and Little specific events, etc. It has been a pleasure serving and I look forward to continuing to work with the brothers!

I am also Brotherhood Overwatch chair, so I am responsible for tracking each brother's mental health. This is a tough job, but very rewarding. As a fraternity, we meet weekly for group therapy; to allow everyone to have a safe space to speak freely about whatever it is that may be causing him or her strife.

As Risk Manager for the Iota Chapter at DU, I oversee any social event where things could go wrong. We are on call whenever there is any event going on. We always assign sober brothers for any event that involves alcohol for the people of age. We also teach the fraternity about sexual harassment and what to do if you see something of that sort. Every time we initiate new brothers we hold a presentation for any to explain to them our risk protocols. We make sure all members are safe according to the school and fraternities guidelines.

Still working on lowering my golf handicap. I am now President of our complex association here on Longboat Key, Florida. Why? I'm a glutton for punishment as well as President of our association in New Hampshire.

Our son (Barbara/wife) has returned to the U.S. after spending the last eight years in Russia (thank heavens). Otherwise, other kids (two daughters) and one grandchild are doing what they are supposed to do (growing up and thriving).

I am partially retired, consulting with prior firm, serving on charitable board in Naples, Florida and leading an active life swimming, golfing, playing tennis, biking and skiing. There were so many great memories, many of which I cannot put down in writing, although the statute of limitation has probably run out by now. I recall the masquerade, toga, and Hawaiian Lua parties.

Married to my wife Lisa, we have two daughters: Rachael (31) and Jessica (29). I am practicing law and selling legal technology for process serving. My best fraternity memory is the human backgammon fund raiser we did when we painted the basketball court as a backgammon board. Billy Castellano and I played games on the roof and directed brothers and little sisters as the game pieces on the ground. Only so much I will put in writing!

I recently was in Oaxaca, Mexico with some friends from ZBT on a mountain biking trip. We biked crazy trails every day, and we ate and drank amazing mole, tacos, and mezcal. Jeff Hauser, Cole Caulkins, Ben Kanellitsas, Nathan Moses, Warren Taylor, and myself were there.
