ZBT At DU Once Again Wins National Recognition!

The brothers of the Iota Chapter of the Zeta Beta Tau Fraternity at the University were recently honored for their achievements at the fraternity's Inter-National Convention held in Atlanta. For the fourth year in a row they were selected as a runner-up for the Brummer Cup as ZBT's most outstanding chapter. They won top honors as the best recruiting chapter on a campus with under 10,000 undergraduates, having the most improved GPA, and having the best intramural participation and record. They also were recognized for outstanding performance in the areas of community service, alumni relations, and parental relations.

The chapter was also recognized as being the best fraternity at DU at this spring's Greek Awards.

Quite A Year For IOTA!

Iota's alumnus Stephen Ehrlich formally received the North American Inter-fraternity Conference's Award of Distinction for his years of dedicated service to the fraternity and the fraternity movement.

MORE RENOVATIONS UNDERWAY

This summer the improvements to our chapter house and home continue. Shrubs are being placed around the rear of the property. New carpeting and a fresh coat of paint will be found in most common areas.

Lighting improvements, some new furniture, renovation of the house director's suite, a new TV are amongst the other renovations taking place. Pictures to follow in the next AN IOTA'S WORTH.
